Sudarshan Seneviratne (1949-2024), a pioneer scholar in Sri Lankan history, archaeology, and heritage research, has made significant contributions through his prolific publication record and seminars in both Sri Lankan and international settings. His focus on a broad spectrum of problem-oriented and issue-related multidisciplinary topics within the fields of history, archaeology, and heritage studies have been disseminated in English, and also translated into Sinhala and Tamil. This document compiles the extensively referenced work of Seneviratne into a comprehensive bibliography.
